

THE GOOD PIRATE CREW:

SANTIAGO

Santiago Montes is a feisty idealist and a natural leader. He is agile, athletic, clever, and never seen without his loyal pet tree frog, Kiko, who likes to nestle in his hair! Ever the feisty idealist who lives by the Golden Rule, Santiago intends to take back the high seas with “pleases,” “thank you’s” and “de nadas.”

Santi inspires everyone around him and knows how to tap others for their special abilities. Through trial and error, exploration, and new acquaintances, Santiago realizes that treasure is not defined by an object but by the experiences you gain along the way. Santiago’s deeds of derring-do prove his worthiness to be the island’s Pirate Protector and successor of the legendary Capitán Calavera.

THE GOOD PIRATE CREW:

KIKO

Kiko the coqui frog is Santi's very best matey. He is very expressive, but not anthropomorphized. He communicates through little squeaks and chirps, and will lend a helping hand, often using his sticky tongue to grab things.

THE GOOD PIRATE CREW:

LORELAI

Lorelai is a mermaid who can transform from mermaid to human thanks to a magical pearl bracelet. She knows everything about the sea and can talk to the creatures that live there! Lorelai's not your typical mermaid - she gets in on the swashbuckling action with Santi and Tomás too, often saving the day with her unique and heroic skills. With her adorable sidekick, Cecilia, by her side we'll see Lorelai doing things only brave pirates do- like riding on top of sharks to face off with villains.

THE GOOD PIRATE CREW:

TOMÁS

Tomás is Santiago's earnest, incredibly eager but slightly anxious younger cousin and lovable comic sidekick. With a Cuatro slung over his shoulder, Tomás communicates his emotions through music, and he can also summon his magical power chord to get the crew out of a jam. Tomás has a lot of quirks and phobias, he always lights up room with a comedic joke and knows how important it is for a good pirate to stand by his mateys.

THE VILLAINS:

BONNIE BONES & SIR BUTTERSCOTCH

Bonnie is the punk rock pirate baddie. She's rude and self-centered, and her ultimate goal is to have the most power and all the pirate booty. Her palm crow sidekick, Sir Butterscotch, loves Bonnie but also can't help admiring Santiago's pirate prowess.

THE VILLAINS:

ENRIQUE REAL DE PALACIOS III

Enrique is a showoff megalomaniac who just wants to have the best and fanciest of everything. He has a crew of mice that do all the grunt work for him because Enrique hates any kind of work or getting dirty.

THE VILLAINS:

ESCARLATA LA PIRATA

Escarlata is a jellyfish/pirate sea witch who considers herself royalty and has melodramatic flair. Her goal is to become the ruler of the Seven Seas, and she has jellyfish minions to help her.

LA FAMILIA:

ABUELO

Santiago's abuelo Antonio is a shipbuilder/woodworker/jack-of all-trades and is a font of myths and fables and stories that keep Santiago spellbound. Kind, witty and never short of support and encouragement (and advice!), he has an eternally youthful spirit and a mischievous glint in his eye. Abuelo is often building ships at the fort or can be found spiffing up the port and town center.

LA FAMILIA:

MAMI

A single working mom, Josefina is the mayor of Larimar. She raised Santiago to be resilient, a problem-solver and self-starter. Tough as nails, yet graceful, she keeps Santiago in line, though always with a kiss and a hug.
