ASMRRR IDEAS

TINGLE TIME

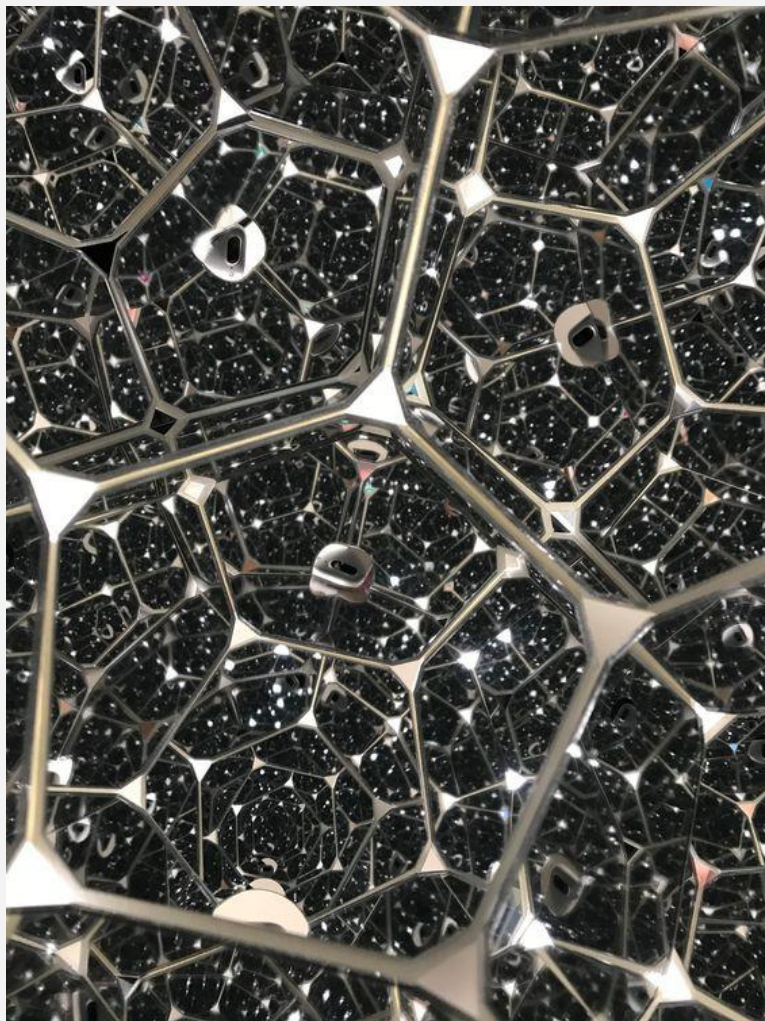

The feeling begins abruptly
Without notice
Breathe in..

It's a numbing feeling
That slowly begins to consume your body
Starting from the tips of your toes

Stretch out your leg
And stand upon your foot

The tingles take over
An explosion of pain and pleasure,

You lose balance
For your foot hasn't woken up yet.

ASMRRR IDEAS

GARDEN GET DOWN

Imagine you are a snail.
In the distance green, juicy plants burst
from the soil
You must consume them with your entire being.

Take this time to move slowly across the Earth.
Slide your mucus covered body..slowly...

White crystals fall quietly upon you.
Ouch..it begins to burn
You realize you are shriveling up.
For there is salt in your wounds.

The grass isn't always greener on the other side.

ASMRRR IDEAS

REINCARNATION

Your time has come to an end.
A glowing warmth forms within you

You hold your hands out,
1, 2, 3, 4, 5 fingers
1, 2, eyes on your face.

Time and space begin to warp around you.
It begins.

You are changing from what you were to who you will now be

1, 2, 3, 4, 5 finger... wait
6, 7, 8 fingers...
1, 2, 3, 4, 5...Woah that's a lot of eyes

Welcome to your new body...for you now poop string and eat flies.

Sorry, we don't make the rules around here.

ASMRRR IDEAS

SCIENCE EXPERIMENT

Welcome to the world.
You have so much potential
So many opportunities lay in your grasp

That is if you had hands
(creature has sponges for hands)

But, that won't stop you from making the best
Out of every day though.
For lightning never strikes twice

You will learn your way around this new world
After you sweep up the lab, take out the trash,
And give your creator his spongebath,
It is Wednesday after all...
